2005 SEOUL International Clothing and Textiles Conference

"ASIA, GATEWAY TO THE FUTURE"
Seoul, Korea, August 18-21, 2005

Conference Announcement

The Korean Society of Clothing and Textiles and the Japan Society of Home Economics, Clothing and Textile Division are pleased to announce that the 2005 Seoul International Conference will be held in August 18-21, 2005 in Hanyang University, Seoul, Korea. Members of KSCT and JHECT and others who are interested in clothing and textiles are invited to join this exciting international conference.

The conference theme, "Asia, Gateway to the Future - Textiles and Apparel Industry", reflects the emerging importance of Asia in clothing and textile industries as globalization is dynamically progressing at unprecedented speed. Scholars and professionals all over the world are invited to exchange ideas and explore new alternatives for textile and clothing field.

The main conference will include a number of exciting and informative programs including opening ceremony with keynote address, research sessions, special topic sessions, and magnificent fashion show/exhibition as well as cultural experience workshops. Additional pre and post conference tours are being planned. The conference will be a great opportunity to keep up with the most updated trends in clothing and textile field and experience rich cultural diversities.

Submissions will be due March 20, 2005. The call for submissions and detailed process will be outlined on the 2005 Seoul International Conference website (www.ksct-jhect.org). Please join us in Seoul and expand your network to open up the Gate to the future!

Make plans now! Don't miss this exciting international conference of textiles and apparel scholars!